JOURNAL

25X1

25X1

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COURSEL

Friday - 13 December 1963

iminigration Submanimittee staff, and Hea Mandel, Senate Internal Security Submanimittee staff, on the best way of having a private bill Security Submanimittee staff, on the best way of having a private bill introduced for several occasions before the Internal Security Submanimittee. Massace said he saw no reason why such a bill would not go through the Senate said he saw no reason why such a bill would not go through the Senate Submanimittee, however, as a matter of approach he suggested that Submanimitee come from the Internal Security Submanimitee. Genetics the initiative come from the Internal Security Submanimitee. Genetics Sacurity Submanimitee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Submanimitee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Submanimitee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Submanimitee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Submanimitee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Submanimitee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Submanimitee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Submanimitee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Submanimitee as well as being Chairman. He felt this introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent full was a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be discussed while a good vehicle for getting action at fascine problem subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual provate bills with our possition on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadifaely possition on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadifaely neason for other Senators to submit editional anesdments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the Invalgration and Naturalizati		All to the state of the state o immigration Subscenmittee staff, on the best way of having a private bill security 3-becommittee staff, on the best way of having a private bill introduced for several occasions before the Internal Security Subscenmittee. Measurer several occasions before the Internal Security Subscenmittee. Measurer said he saw as reason why such a bill would am go through the Senate said he saw as reason why such a bill would am go through the Senate Subscenmittee, however, as a matter of approach be suggested that Senate that individual to Chairman of the Inunigration Subscenmittee and the Internal Security Subscenmittee as well as being Chairman of the fall Judiciary Security Subscenmittee as well as being Chairman of the fall Judiciary Security Subscenmittee as well as being Chairman of the fall Judiciary Security Subscenmittee as well as being Chairman of the fall Judiciary Security Subscenmittee.) Mandel said he was certain that Senator Eastland would formatively who have be addressed to the Chairman. He felt this introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent further internally.  I also chaited with Measurer about the RFE naturalisation problem subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each possition on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was standardly opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open possition on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was standardly opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open east.  I also talked with Measurer regarding the east it was not unusual to possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unu	GLC) Talked with Fred his	samer, Service	25X1 introduced for several occasions before the internal Security Subcommittee. Measurer several occasions before the internal Security Subcommittee. Measurer seals he saw no reason why such a bill would not go through the Measure said he saw no reason why such a bill would not go through the Measure Subcommittee, however, as a matter of approach he suggested that Subcommittee. (Senator the initiative come from the internal Security Subcommittee and the Internal Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee.) Mandel said he was certain that Senator Eastland would Committee.) Mandel said he was certain that Senator Eastland would introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent individual who knows be addressed to the Chairman. He felt this be a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be discussed further internally.  I also chaited with Measurer about the RFE naturalization problem pointing out our feeling that general legislation was not feasible and was subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each to the admission of a reasonable mumber of individual private bills each opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment regarding the later of the fact that we was double checking information of a very derogatory nature in consection with this bill which it now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was compiletely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. H introduced for several occasions before the internal Security Subcommittee. Manner said he saw no reason why such a bill would not go through the Sanate said he saw no reason why such a bill would not go through the Sanate the initiative come from the internal Security Subcommittee. (Senator the initiative come from the internal Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the Innernal Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee. Mandel said he was certain that Senator Eastland would Committee. Mandel said he was certain that Senator Eastland would introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent be addressed to the Chairman. He felt this would be a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be discussed further internally.  I also chaited with Measurer about the Approximant residence but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our possition on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadiastly opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of the immigration and Saturalization Act.  I also taked with Measurer regarding the ease.  I also taked with the now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being Milled. Fire added that it was not unusual the testimates to formation	Think I want the best way a	d baving a private blat several occasions before the internal security to through the Senate said he saw no reason why such a bill would not go through the Senate Selecommittee, however, as a matter of approach be suggested that the initiative come from the internal Security Subcommittee. Genator Eastland is Chairman of the Immigration Subcommittee and the Internal Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Committee.) Standel said he was certain that Senator Eastland would introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent individual who knows be addressed to the Chairman. He felt this individual who knows be addressed to the Chairman. He felt this would be a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be discussed further internally.  I also chaited with Seamer about the RFE naturalization problem pointing out out feeling that general legislation was not feasible and was subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each but were working for RFE abroad. Measure agreed completely with our position on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment regarding the latered Measurer (as I had the House Subcommittee) to the fact that we were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the feasibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusua	Security 5 Section 11100 Telephone	who testified on
Subcommittee, however, as a matter of approach be suggested that Subcommittee, however, as a matter of approach be suggested that the initiative come from the internal Security Subcommittee and the Internal Eastland is Chairman of the Immigration Subcommittee and the Internal Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Committee.) Mandel said he was certain that Senator Eastland would Committee.) Mandel said he was certain that Senator Eastland would introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent individual who knows be addressed to the Chairman. He felt this would be a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be discussed further internally.  I also chaited with Messmer about the RFE naturalization problem subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence were working for RFE abroad. Messmer agreed completely with our but were working for RFE abroad. Messmer agreed completely with our papers on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly possition on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly apposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and Maturalization Act.  I also talked with Messmer regarding the ease.  I also talked with Messmer regarding the ease.  I also talked with Messmer regarding the ease calconder. Messmer was connection about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that was concerned about the Matural information to be received after one house had passed on a		Subcommittee. Mescae!	r e
Subcommittee, however, as a matter of approach be suggested that Subcommittee, however, as a matter of approach be suggested that the initiative come from the internal Security Subcommittee and the Internal Eastland is Chairman of the Immigration Subcommittee and the Internal Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Committee.) Mandel said he was certain that Senator Eastland would Committee.) Mandel said he was certain that Senator Eastland would introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent individual who knows be addressed to the Chairman. He felt this would be a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be discussed further internally.  I also chaited with Messmer about the RFE naturalization problem subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence were working for RFE abroad. Messmer agreed completely with our but were working for RFE abroad. Messmer agreed completely with our papers on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly possition on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly apposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and Maturalization Act.  I also talked with Messmer regarding the ease.  I also talked with Messmer regarding the ease.  I also talked with Messmer regarding the ease calconder. Messmer was connection about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that was concerned about the Matural information to be received after one house had passed on a	several occasions believe	a no through the Senate the initiative come from the internal Security Subcommittee, (Senator the initiative come from the internal Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee, as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee, as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee, as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee, as prominent introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent individual who knows be addressed to the Chairman. He felt this would be a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be discussed would be a good vehicle for getting action was not feasible and was subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our poposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and Saturalization Act.  I also talked with Measurer regarding the ease.  I also talked with Measurer regarding the ease.  I also talked with Measurer regarding the ease.  I also talked with Measurer regarding the ease calendary mature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the House calendary nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the House calendary was concerned about the possibility of this bill being hilled. He added that it was not unusual the Measurer in force and of the Subcommittee was cancerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the Measurer in the Posses calendary inforcement of the Subcommittee was cancerned as far as the Subcommitte	said he saw no readon why size a	and be supposited that Eastland is Chairman of the Immigration Subcommittee and the Internal Eastland is Chairman of the Immigration Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee and well as subject to the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent individual who knows be addressed to the Chairman. He felt this would be a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be discussed further internally.  I also chaited with Measurer about the RFE naturalization problem subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection subject to the admission of a reasonable mumber of individual private bills each to the admitted for permanent residence possition on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadiably open the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the investgration and Maturalization Act.  I also talked with Measurer regarding the ease.  I also talked with Measurer regarding the subject to the fact that we were double checking information of a very deregatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual to the status of the full status of the subject of the status of the subject of the subject of the subject of the s	Subcommittee, however, as a matter of approximation	intermedities (Sensior Eastland is Chairman of the immagnetic Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee as well as being Chairman of the full Judiciary Security Subcommittee.) Mandel said he was certain that Senator Eastland would introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent introduce the bill but suggested to the Chairman. He felt this individual who had be a started. This will be discussed further internally.  I also chaited with Measurer about the RFE naturalization problem pointing out our feeling that general legislation was not feasible and was subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our passion on this. He added that Chairman Sastiand was steadfastly opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and pasturalization for this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility information to be received after one house had passed on a	the initiative come from the internal Decartey	manufacture and the Internal	, }
Security Subcommittee as was certain that Senator Eastland would Committee.) Mandel said he was certain that Senator Eastland would introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent individual who knows be addressed to the Chairman. He felt this would be a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be discussed further internally.  I also chaited with Mesmer about the RFE naturalization problem pointing out our feeling that general legislation was not feasible and was subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence but were working for RFE abroad. Mesmer agreed completely with our but were working for RFE abroad. Mesmer agreed completely with our possition on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and Naturalization destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and Naturalization was calculated were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Mesmer was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	Eastland to Chairman of the Immigration were	at the fall Indicina introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent introduce the bill but suggested that if possible a letter from a prominent individual who knows the addressed to the Chairman. He felt this would be a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be discussed further internally.  I also chaited with Measurer about the RFE naturalization problem pointing out our feeling that general legislation was not feasible and was subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our poposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and maturalization act.  I also tasked with Measurer regarding the ease.  25X1  I also tasked with Measurer regarding the ease.  a laterted Measurer (as I had the House Subcommittee) to the fact that we were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual to the feet of the limited after one house had passed on a	Security Subcommittee as well as being Chair	Table 1 introduce the bill but suggested that the Chairman. He felt this individual who knows be addressed to the Chairman. He felt this would be a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be discussed further internally.  I also chaited with Mesmer about the RFE naturalization problem pointing out our feeling that general legislation was not feasible and was subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence but were working for RFE abroad. Mesmer agreed completely with our position on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of the immigration and maturalization destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and maturalization act.  I also tasked with Mesmer regarding the ease.  25X1  I also tasked with Mesmer regarding the ease concerned about completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual to be received after one house had bessed on a	Committee.) Mandel said he was certain that		ant would be a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be discussed would be a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be discussed further internally.  I also chaited with Measurer about the RFE naturalisation problem pointing out our feeling that general legislation was not feasible and was subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our position on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and naturalisation act.  I also tasked with Measurer regarding the ease.  25X1  I also tasked with Measurer regarding the ease. with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	include the bill but suggested that if possible		i a would be a good vehicle for getting action started. This will be also chaited with Measurer about the RFE naturalization problem.  I also chaited with Measurer about the RFE naturalization problems pointing out our feeling that general legislation was not feesible and was subject to attack on constitutional grounds. Measurer, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our position on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and Maturalization Act.  I also tasked with Measurer regarding the ease.  I also tasked with Measurer regarding the ease.  25X1  I alerted Measurer (as I had the House Subcommittee) to the fact that we with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	be addressed to the		and the second
I also chaited with Measurer about the RFE naturalisation problem pointing out our feeling that general legislation was not feasible and was subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our position on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and Paturalisation destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and Paturalisation act.  I also taiked with Measurer regarding the ease.  25X1  I also taiked with Measurer regarding the ease to connection were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcompatite was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual to be received after one house had passed on a	individual and making for cetting action star	ted. The will be since	$ 38 40 40 pointing out our feeling that general legislation was not feasible and was subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our possition on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the invalgration and maturalization act.  I also taiked with Measurer regarding the ease.  I also taiked with Measurer regarding the ease.  25X1  I also taiked with Measurer regarding the ease.  25X1  I also taiked with Measurer regarding the ease.  Connections were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connections with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual		* * pointing out our feeling that general important. However, we see no objection subject to attack on constitutional grounds. However, we see no objection to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our position on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and maturalization destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and maturalization for the following the lease.  I also tasked with Measurer regarding the ease.  25X1  I also tasked with Measurer regarding the ease.  also tasked with Measurer regarding the ease.  25X1  I also tasked with Measurer regarding the ease concerned about were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	further internative	VE pateralization profit subject to attack on constitutional mumber of individual private bills each to the admission of a reasonable number of individual private bills each year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our but were double the added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly position on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this individual and maturalization destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and maturalization destroy mature in connection were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was concerned about completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	i also Charles was a neval levislation	m was not leasthic and w	**
year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our position on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly position on this. He added that the sould spen opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment additional amendments which would the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the intensgration and Paturalization destroy much of the force and effect of the intensgration and Paturalization of a very derogatory nature in connection were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	pointing out our regular, that grands.	imperer, we see no obje-	ction year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence year for those individuals who had been admitted for permanent residence but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our but were working for RFE abroad. Measurer agreed completely with our position on this. He added that Chairman Eastland was steadfastly position on this. He added that the sould spen opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment additional amendments which would the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the intensgration and Paturalization destroy much of the force and effect of the intensgration and Paturalization of a very derogatory nature in connection were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	subject to attack on constitutions.	dividual private bills on	e à position on this. He added that Chairman Sestiand was steadfastly position on this. He added that Chairman Sestiand was steadfastly open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment additional amendments which would the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and platuralization destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and platuralization of a very derogatory nature in connection were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the Bosse calendar. Measure was with this bill which is now pending on the Bosse calendar. Measure was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	to the similation of a reasonable management	ned for permanent resid	05.64
position on this. He added that Chairman Sestiand was steadfastly position on this. He added that Chairman Sestiand was steadfastly open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment additional amendments which would the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and platuralization destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and platuralization of a very derogatory nature in connection were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the Bosse calendar. Measure was with this bill which is now pending on the Bosse calendar. Measure was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	year for those individuals who has been applica-	areas carpoletely with	沙 森掌 position on this. He sadd that the sort feeling that it would open opposed to any general amendment of this sort feeling that it would the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and platuralization destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and platuralization destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and platuralization destroy makes in connection were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measure was completely unconcerned as far as the subcommittee was concerned about completely unconcerned as far as the subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	but were working for RYE abroad. Mariner	allend was stead (Astly the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would the door for other Senators to submit additional amendments which would destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and Faturalization destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and Faturalization destroy makes (as I had the House Subcommittee) to the fact that we were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measure was concerned about completely unconcerned as far as the subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	scattion on this. He added that Chairman ser	And the state of the state of the destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and paturalization destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and paturalization destroy much of the force and effect of the immigration and paturalization destroy makes in connection were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection with this bill which is now pending on the flower calendar. Measure was with this bill which is now pending on the flower calendar. Measure was concerned about completely unconcerned as far as the subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	appears to any general amendment of this son	The same which w	ould
i also tasked with Measurer regarding the	the door for other Senators to submit addition		cat1on
I also talked with Meaner regarding the	destroy much of the force and effect of the lin
I also talked with Measurer regarding to the fact that we I also talked Measurer (as I had the House Subcommittee) to the fact that we were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection was with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measurer was completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual
I alerted Mesmor (as I had the frome outer derogatory nature in connection were double checking information of a very derogatory nature in connection was with this bill which is now pending on the House calendar. Measure was concerned about completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual			~ ^F\// were double checking information on the Flower calendar. Measure was with this bill which is now pending on the Flower calendar. Measure was concerned about completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	Washer tas I had the House Subcom	andites) to the last tour with this bill which is now pending on subcommittee was concerned about completely unconcerned as far as the Subcommittee was concerned about the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	a survival and a survival and a very d	lerogatory nature to com	MARKET AND A STATE OF THE STATE completely enconcerned as far as the sadded that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual the possibility of this bill being killed. He added that it was not unusual	ware something his hard needing on the Hor	see calendar. Leamer	re.
the possibility of this bill being survey after one house had passed on a	WHA the put wanted on for an the Subcom	amittee was concerned s	19 OWA
The state of the s	completely and make hill halos killed. He a	idded that it was not unui	Stam i for additional information and took fine action.	the possibility of this view to be received after	er one house had passed	On 8 for additional intermetation and took fine	action.

MORI/CDF